INDEX TO VOL. LI

The titles of articles are printed in italics

ACADEMY, A Chartered, 493–505 Accession Oath as it affects the Catholics of the Empire, 521–539
Act of Settlement, The Passing of the, 305–314
Agricultural labourers, farmers, and parsons, 644–648
American millionaires and England's art treasures, 421–433
American securities in the English market, 671–674
Anderson (Sir Robert), The Treatment of Untried Prisoners, 383–395
Anglo-Japanese Treaty, The, 369–382, 506–510
Apprenticeship, its revival necessary in mechanical trades, 108, 109
Army, British, and defence of the Empire, 349–359
Art and Eccentricity, 252–262
Art-collecting and fraudulent silver plate, 284–290
Art Treasures, England's, The Increasing Export of, 421–433
Ascendency, The, of the Future, 795–810
Australian Commonwealth, Literature of the, 655–670

BACON-SHAKESPEARE Cypher, Mrs. Gallup's story judged upon internal evidence, 39–59
Belgium and Holland, what England has done for them, 1023–1032
Berenson (Bernard), his theory concerning the influence of 14th century miniaturists upon Dante's imagery, 785–794
Bible heroes, theory of their mythological origin, 60–70
Birchenough (Henry), Mr. Chamberlain as an Empire Builder, 360–368; Preferential Tariffs within the Empire, 891–899
Blunt (Wilfrid Scawen), The Great Irish Epic, 811–816

Boer Prisoners in Ceylon, 187–192
Boer war, The, and French Free masons, 640
Boulger (Demetrius C.), England and Little States, 1023–1032
British Academy of Knowledge, and royal recognition of Literature, 493–505
British Labour—a Workman's View, 104–111
British Navy, The, and its submarine boats, 220–232
British Zollverein, The Dream of a, 693–705; reply to, 891–899
Bryce (James), A Few Words on the New Education Bill, 849–857
Burgis (Edwin C.), A New Route to Canada, 88–93
Bushby (H. N. G.), The Agreement between Great Britain and Japan, 369–382

CANADA, A New Route to, 88–93 Canada and the Imperial Conference, 900–907
Candler (H.), Mrs. Gallup's Cypher Story—a Reply to Mr. Mallock, 39–49
Capital and population for South Africa, 671–682
Catholic University, The Demand for a, 263–275
Catholics of the Empire, The King's 'Declaration' and the, 521–539
Cecil (Hon. Mrs. Evelyn), The Needs of South Africa: Female Emigration, 683–692
Ceylon, Boer Prisoners in, 187–192
Chamberlain (Mr.) and Count von Bülow, 385–388
Chamberlain (Mr.) as an Empire Builder, 360–368
Chesney (G. M.), Famine and Controversy, 478–492
Cheyne (Professor T. K.), A Turning Point in Old Testament Study, 60–70

CHI

Childers (Hugh R. E.), The Navigation Laws, 883–890
Childers (Spencer), The Coronation of George the Fourth, 1013–1016
China, Great Britain, and Japan, and the events leading up to the Anglo-Japanese treaty, 369–382
Chinese Drama, The, 1017–1022
Chinese Labour for the Rand, 181–186
Church of England, Ordination of Priests in the, 626–634
Clarke (Marcus), Australian writer, 665–666
Clarke (Sir Andrew), Our Naval Position in Eastern Seas, 1–10
Clean Slate, The, 517–520
Clowes (W. Laird), The Condition of the Naval Reserve, 550–561; An Insubordinate Admiral, 980–993
Coaling stations and harbours in Eastern seas, 1–10
Colonial Premiers, conference with the Imperial Government, 900–907
Colonial trade, the mercantile Navy, and the Navigation Laws, 883–890
Colonies, British, preferential tariff arrangements with the Mother Country, 891–899
Colonisation of gentlewomen in South Africa, 83–87
Colour Blindness, 604–609
Commercial union as a means to Imperial Federation, 693–705, 891–899, 900–907
Comte (Auguste), Paris memorial to, and the London Positivists, 817–827
Confession and the 'Retention' of sins, 626–634
Cook (Herbert), Did Titian live to be Ninety-nine Years Old? 123–130
Cooking-waggons for armies in the field, 144–148
Coronation Progresses, Some Bygone, 994–1012
Coronation Rite, The Unique Continuity of our, 744–752
Coronation ritual (The), does it imply spiritual jurisdiction? 444–445
Cosin (Bishop) and the Parliamentary prayer, 473–477
Country squire, The, what has become of him? 149–159, 411–420, 644–648
County Councils, School Boards, and Secondary Education, 24–38
Covent Garden Opera, suggestions for reform, 118–122
Cross (J. W.), The Needs of South Africa: Capital and Population, 671–682
Crossing the River, 649–654
Cuchulin, the great Irish epic, 811–816

GAL

DANTE and the Fine Arts, 785–794
Daudet (Ernest), and the correspondence of Princess Lieven, 319–339
Dawkins (Clinton), Compulsory Military Training—a Pan-Britannic Militia, 349–359
Denison (Lieut.-Col. George T.), Canada and the Imperial Conference, 900–907
Dicey (Edward), A Chartered Academy, 493–505
Domestic servants for South Africa, 71–87
Dublin University and Roman Catholic education, 266–275

EASTERN Seas, Our Naval Position in, 1–10
Edridge-Green (Dr. F. W.), Colour Blindness, 604–609
Education Bill, Some Possible Amendments to the, 952–965
Education Bill, The New, A Few Words on, 849–857
Education Problem, The, 24–38
Edwards (Clement), Should Trade Unions be Incorporated? 233–251
Eliot (George), 932–946
Ellis (Havelock), The Genius of Spain, 753–769
Emigration, Female, to South Africa, 71–87
Emigration to South Africa, 676–682, 683–692, 706–715
Empire Builder, Mr. Chamberlain as an, 360–368
Empire, Problems of the, 716–731
Empress Frederick, The, in Youth, 193–200
England and Little States, 1023–1032
English Girl, The Young, self-portrayed, 456–464

FAMINE and Controversy, 478–492
Female Emigration to South Africa, 71–87
Fitch (Sir Joshua), The Education Problem, 24–38; Some Possible Amendments to the Education Bill, 952–965
Fletcher (Archdeacon), The Renewed Struggle for the Schools, 540–549
Fogs, Town, The Reduction of, 131–143
Freemasonry in France, 635–643
French Girl, The Young, Interviewed, 276–288

GALLOWAY (Mary, Countess of), Boer Prisoners in Ceylon, 187–192

GAL

Gallup's (Mrs.) Cypher Story: a Reply to Mr. Mallock, 39–59
Gaol reform and the treatment of untried prisoners and of criminals, 383–395
George Eliot, 932–946
George the Fourth's Coronation, Letter from an Eye-witness of, 1013–1016
Ghost Stories, Concerning, 465–472
Giffen (Sir Robert), The Dream of a British Zollverein, 693–705; reply to, 891–899
Gladstone (Mr.) and the Colour Sense, 605, 606
Good Old Cause, The, 11–23
Goodrich-Freer (Miss A.), The 'Hobson-Jobson,' 581–594
Gordon (Adam Lindsay), Australian poet, 662–665
Great Britain and Japan, The Agreement between, 369–382
Greenwood (Frederick), South Africa, A Violent Proposal, 173–180
Gregory (Lady), her translation of The Life and Death of Cuchulin, 811–816
Griffin (Sir Lepel), South Africa and India, 706–715
Gwynn (Stephen), The Masque of 'Ulysses,' 434–443

HARCOURT (Col. A. F. P.), Where the Village Gentry are, 417–420
Harrison (Frederic), Newton Hall, 817–827
Hely-Hutchinson (Lady), Female Emigration to South Africa, 71–87
Higgins (Alfred), Dante and the Fine Arts, 785–794
'Hobson-Jobson,' The (or Hassan and Hussein), 581–594
Holland (Hon. Sydney), The Case for Hospital Nurses, 770–779
Homer's Iliad, comparison of Pope's translation with the 'Bacon' cypher version, 50–59
Homer's knowledge of colours, 605–608
Hope (E. S.), Some Bygone Coronation Progresses, 994–1012
Hospital Nurses, The Case against, 595–608
Hospital Nurses, The Case for, 770–784
Human development, The evolution of, 795–810
Hurd (Archibald S.), The Coming of the Submarine, 220–232
Hutchinson (James G.), British Labour—a Workman's View, 104–111

LAN

IMPERIAL Conference, Canada and the, 900–907
Imperial consolidation, the Colonies and Mr. Chamberlain, 360–368
Imperial Council, An, for a Federated British Empire, 716–731
Imperial Zollverein or Commercial Union, 693–705, 891–899
Imperialist sentiment in Canada, 900–907
Incorporation of Trade Unions, logical result of Taff Vale judgment, 233–251
India, need of harbours and coaling stations, 2–9
India, South Africa and, 706–715
Indian colonisation of South Africa, 706–715
Indian famine, Government's methods for relief, 478–492
Insubordinate Admiral, An, 980–993
Ireland, The Land War in the West of, 732–743
Irish Epic, The Great, 811–816
Irish 'Land Purchase' system, disastrous results, 732–743
Irish priesthood and Ultramontanism, 263–275

JAPAN, Great Britain and, The Agreement between, 369–382
Jersey (Countess of), The Young English Girl self-portrayed, 456–464
Johnston (Miss M. F.), The Case against Hospital Nurses, 595–608; replies to, 770–784, 972–979; The Question of the Modern Trained Nurses, 966–971
Johnston (Sir Harry H.), Problems of the Empire, 716–731

KENDALL (Henry), first Australian poet, 657–664
Kidd (Mr.), his theory of human development, 795–810
King Edward VII., Coronation of, antiquity of English coronation service, 744–752
King, The Crowned, is he an Ecclesiastical Person? 444–455
King's 'Declaration' (The), and the Catholics of the Empire, 521–539
Kitchen Waggon, The, 144–148

LAMBERT (Miss Agnes), The King's 'Declaration' and the Catholics of the Empire, 521–539
Land War, The, in the West of Ireland, 732–743

LAS

Last Month, 160–172, 334–348, 506–520, 858–872, 1033–1046
Leche (Mrs.), Another Aspect of Thackeray, 947–951
Ledger (Rev. Edmund), The Mysterious New Star in Perseus, 291–304
Lee (Sidney), Shakespeare in Oral Tradition, 201–219
Legg (Dr.), Mr. L. W. Legg, and the Coronation ritual, 444–455
Leys (P.), South Africa, Chinese Labour for the Rand, 181–186
Liberal Leaguers and Whig Patriots, 562–567
Liberalism and Radicalism, old and new, 11–23
Lieven (Princess), Metternich and, 315–334
Lilly (W. S.), Concerning Ghost Stories, 465–472
Literature and the Theatre, 568–580
Literature of the Australian Commonwealth, 655–670
Little (Archibald), The Chinese Drama, 1017–1022
London University, a Policy and a Forecast, 914–931
Lord (Walter Frewen), The Apostle of Mediocrity, 396–410; reply to, 947–951
Low (Sidney), Personal Recollections of Cecil Rhodes : Some Conversations in London, 828–840
Lynch (Hannah), The Young French Girl Interviewed, 276–283

MACLEANE (Rev. Douglas), The Unique Continuity of our Coronation Rite, 744–752
Macquoid (Percy), On the Collecting of Old Silver Plate, 284–290
Maitland (J. A. Fuller), Music versus the Opera, 112–122
Mallock (W. H.), The Latest Shipwreck of Metaphysics, 610–625
— replies to his article on Bacon-Shakespeare Cypher, 39–59
Marston (R. B.), Mrs. Gallup's Cypher Story: Bacon—Shakespeare—Pope, 50–59
Masonic lodges in France, 635–643
Matoppo Hills, Mr. Rhodes's peace-making mission in the, 841–848
Mediocrity, The Apostle of, 396–410; reply to, 947–951
Merchant Shipping Act and British ownership, 888–890
Metaphysics, The Latest Shipwreck of, 610–625
Metternich and Princess Lieven, 315–334
Microscope, The, use by Paget and Pasteur in study of disease, 94–103
Military Training, Compulsory, a Pan-Britannic Militia, 349–359
Milman (Sir Archibald), Who composed the Parliamentary Prayer? 473–477
Mining on the Rand, relative cost of Kaffir and Chinese labour, 181–186
Monkey Magazine (The) and the Young English Girl, 456–464
Morris (Judge O'Connor), The Land War in the West of Ireland, 732–743
Music versus the Opera, 112–122

NATIONAL characteristics of the Spaniards, 753–769
Naval Position, Our, in Eastern Seas, 1–10
Naval Reserve cruisers and the North Atlantic shipping agreement, 878–882, 1042
Naval Reserve, The Condition of the, 550–561
Navigation Laws, The, 883–890
Newton Hall, 817–827
Nurses, Hospital, charges against, and reforms in training, 595–608; replies to, 770–784
Nurses, Modern Trained, The Question of the, 966–979

OLD Testament Study, A Turning Point in, 60–70
Opera, Music versus the, 112–122
Oppenheim (Capt. L.), The Fight at 'Roival (50),' 908–913
Ordination of Priests in the Church of England, 626–634

PAGET (Lady), The Empress Frederick in Youth—a Recollection, 193–200
Paget (Sir James) and Louis Pasteur, 94–103
Painting and sculpture of Dante's time, did they supply his imagery? 785–794
Pan-Britannic Militia, A, 349–359
Parliament and Parties, 1035–1045
Parliament, the Budget, and the Education Bill, 862–872
Parliamentary procedure, 514–517, 867, 868
Pasteur (Louis), Sir James Paget and, 94–103
Paul (Herbert), Art and Eccentricity, 252–262; George Eliot, 932–946
Pauncefote (Lord), death of, 1045, 1046

PED

Pedder (Lieut.-Col.), Where are the Village Gentry? 149–159; replies to, 411–420; his rejoinder, 644–648
Perseus, The Mysterious New Star in, 291–304
Persian passion play at Albert Docks, 581–594
Phillips (Claude), The Increasing Export of England's Art Treasures, 421–433
Phillips (Stephen), Masque of 'Ulysses,' 434–443
Photographic and spectroscopic study of New Star in Perseus, 291–304
Playwriters of to-day, English and French, 568–580
Poetry, Aristotle's conception of, contrasted with modern realism, 252–262
Poets and actors who knew Shakespeare, 201–219
Popham (Mrs.), Crossing the River, 649–654
Positivist Society at Newton Hall, 817–827
Post-graduate training at London University, 914–931
Preferential Tariffs within the Empire: a Reply to Sir Robert Giffen, 891–899
Priestley (Lady), Sir James Paget and Louis Pasteur, 94–103
Princess Royal (afterwards Empress Frederick), Lady Paget's recollections of, 193–200
Prisoners, Untried, The Treatment of, 383–395

RAE (Miss Lucy M.), The Question of the Modern Trained Nurses, 972–974
Raper (G. A.), Freemasonry in France, 635–643
Reid (Sir Wemyss), Last Month, 160–172, 334–348, 506–520, 858–872, 1033–1046
Religious teaching in schools, 545–549
Rhodes (Cecil), death of, 868, 869
Rhodes (Cecil), Personal Recollections of, 828–848
Rice (Mr. Griffith), his casting-vote for the Hanoverian succession, 305–314
Robertson (Edmund), The Shipping 'Combine' and the British Flag, 873–882
Robinson (Lionel G.), Metternich and Princess Lieven, 315–333
'Roival (50),' The Fight at, 908–913
Rosebery (Lord) and the Liberal Party, 160–172, 345–348, 517–520, 562–567, 1039

STE

Rowland (Percy F.), The Literature of the Australian Commonwealth, 655–670
Royal Society's charter and projected British Academy, 499–505
Rural England, the squire and the labourer, 149–159, 411–420, 644–648
Russell (Hon. Rollo), The Reduction of Town Fogs, 131–143
Ruvigny and Raineval (Marquis de) and Cranstoun Metcalfe, The Passing of the Act of Settlement, 805–814

SANDERS (Lloyd), The New Whigs and the Old, 562–567
School Boards, County Councils, and the Education Bill, 952–965
Schools, The Renewed Struggle for the, 540–549
Schools, Elementary, and the New Education Bill, 540–559, 849–857, 865–867
Scottish Horse at Roival, 908–913
Secondary and Technical Education, Local authority for regulation of, 24–38
Shakespeare in Oral Tradition, 201–219
Shipping 'Combine,' The, and the British Flag, 873–882
Silver Plate, Old, On the Collecting of, 284–290
Smoke abatement and reduction of fogs, 131–143
Somerset (H. Somers), The Kitchen Waggon, 144–148
South Africa and India, 706–715
South Africa: A Violent Proposal; Chinese Labour for the Rand; Boer Prisoners in Ceylon, 174–192
South Africa, Female Emigration to, 71–87, 683–692
South Africa, Mr. Rhodes's views concerning, 828–840
South Africa, The Needs of: Capital and Population, 671–682; Female Emigration, 683–692
South African war, The, 334–348, 510–513, 858–862, 1035
— Canadian contingents, 902
— Van Donop's fight at Roival, 908–913
Spain, The Genius of, 753–769
Star, The Mysterious New, in Perseus, 291–304
Steamship communication with Canada, need of new route and faster ships, 88–93
Stephen (Leslie), The Good Old Cause, 11–23; The Ascendency of the Future, 795–810; his life of George Eliot, 932–946

STE

Stewart (Miss Isla), The Case for Hospital Nurses, 780–784
Stoney (Dr. G. Johnstone), The Demand for a Catholic University, 268–275
Submarine, The Coming of the: the New British Boats, 220–232
Supernatural apparitions and the unseen world, 465–472

TARIFFS. Preferential, within the Empire: a Reply to Sir Robert Giffen, 891–899
Thackeray, Another Aspect of, 947–951
Thackeray (William Makepeace), his cynical views of social life as shown by the characters in his novels, 396–410
— his genius in portraying human nature, 947–951
Theatre, Literature and the, 568–580
Theatrical performances in China, 1017–1022
Thurston (Rev. Herbert), Is the Crowned King an Ecclesiastical Person? 444–455
Titian—Did he live to be Ninety years Old? 128–130
Town Fogs, The Reduction of, 131–143
Trades-unions and their influence, baneful or beneficial? 105, 106
Trade Unions, should they be incorporated? 233–251
Transvaal mineral wealth an asset towards cost of the war, 173–180
Treville (Olivier de) on the Young French Girl, 276–283
Twisleton (Hon. Maria), her account of George the Fourth's coronation, 1013–1016

'ULYSSES,' The Masque of, 434–443
United Irish League, The, and the Land War, 732–743
United States and Canadian trade, 900–907

VENETIAN painting, and the early work of Titian, 128–130
Verney (Frederick), Ordination of Priests in the Church of England, 626–634
Vernon (Rear-Admiral Sir Home Riggs), his capture of Puerto Rico, and disputes with the Admiralty, 980–993
Village Gentry, Where are the? 149–159; re[illegible]to, 411–420; a rejoinder, 644–648
Volcanic eruptions in the West Indies, 1033, 1034
Volunteers for the Navy, and Royal Naval Reserve, 550–561

WARD (Prof.) and the New Idealists, 610–625
Warde (Mrs. Alec), The Question of the Modern Trained Nurses, 975–979
Water Corps for armies in the field, 144–146
Waters (W. G.), Where the Village Gentry are, 411–416
Webb (Sidney), London University; a Policy and a Forecast, 914–931
Wedmore (Frederick), Literature and the Theatre, 568–580
Welsh pilgrim's progress, the river of Death, 649–654
Westminster Abbey, Some coronation processions to, 994–1012
Whigs, The New, and the Old, 562–567
White Star Line, British Government subsidy, and Transatlantic 'combine,' 873–882, 1042
William III. and the succession to the English Crown, 305–314
Winckler (Hugo), theory of mythological origin of Old Testament heroes, 60–70
Witt (Robert Clermont), Personal Recollections of Cecil Rhodes: As Peacemaker on the Matoppo Hills, 841–848
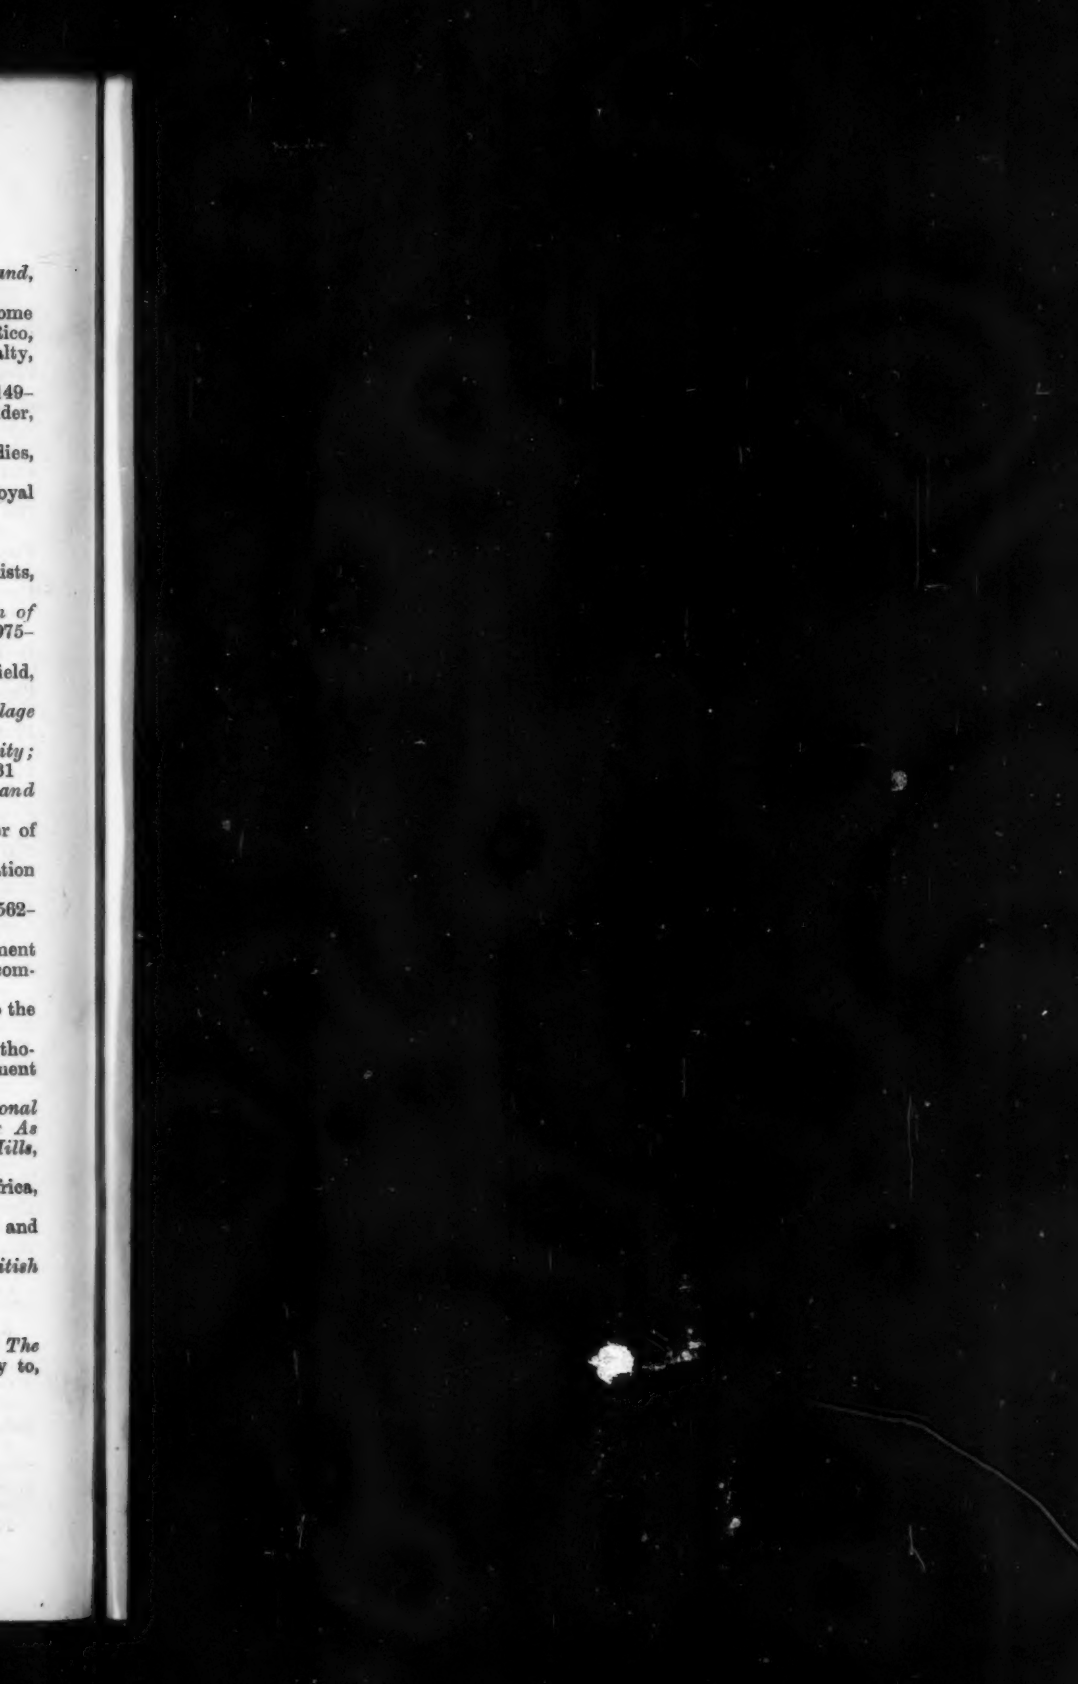
Women emigrants for South Africa, 683–692
Women novelists, George Eliot and others, 932–946
Workman's View, A, of British Labour, 104–111

ZOL


ZOLLVEREIN, British, The Dream of a, 693–705; reply to, 891–899